DEDICATION

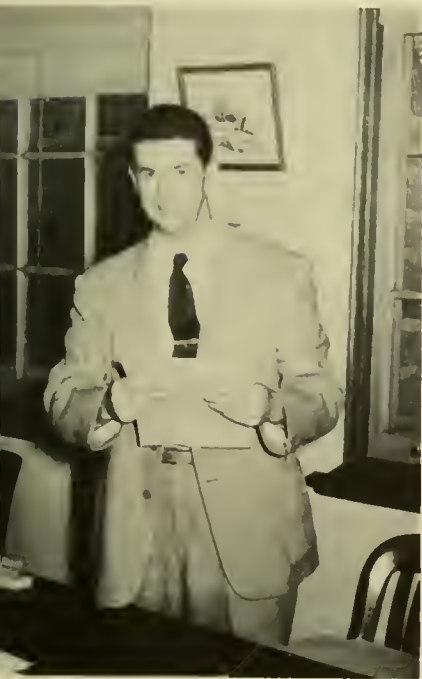

It is with much affection and appreciation that we, the members of the Class of 1954, dedicate this edition of the Serpentine to Mrs. Helen T. Ivins and Mr. Emil H. Messikomer.

Mrs. Ivins, a member of the Department of Social Studies, has not confined her talents solely to the area of instruction. Through her advisory work with Neithian Club and Student Government Association, she has gained respect and admiration for her untiring efforts and even temperament.

Mr. Messikomer, in his dual role as director of personnel and basketball coach, has so successfully combined his administrative duties with his coaching abilities that he is recognized equally by members of the faculty and by the student body.

Together, they have become well known to us in their capacity as Class Advisers, for they have helped us to achieve success by their friendly assistance and wise encouragement.

For these reasons, we, as potential graduates of West Chester State Teachers College, are proud to dedicate this book to Mrs. Ivins and Mr. Messikomer, two graduates of this college who have proved themselves to be our valuable leaders and friends.

ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association is one which combines two organizations, the Legislative Assembly and the Cabinet. The Legislative Assembly is composed of faculty members who serve as advisers and representatives from each class who are elected annually by the student body. Students holding certain high official positions in the leading campus organizations automatically become members of the Cabinet.

Two of the important campus activities which are under the direction of student government are Freshman Regulations and the All-College Party. However, the major function of these organizations is to pass and reject legislation, most of which is submitted by the student body.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION

The Student Activities Association is an organization designed to plan for and to give financial assistance to clubs and athletic groups on campus. Under the guidance of Dr. Robert F. Anderson, the group handles the allotment and distribution of such funds according to college policy.

The outstanding project of the Student Activities Association is the sponsorship of the celebrated All-Star Programs. This year's presentations included Robert Merrill, Yehudi Menuhin, William Warfield, and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.

The co-ordinating link between the Women's Day Student Council and the Dormitory Council is the Advisory Board. This important and active organization has sponsored a tea honoring the Seniors, the Mid-Winter Formal, the Big—Little Sister Picnic, the Council Banquet, and the festive event of decorating the lobby of Main Dormitory for the Christmas season.

The accomplishments of this group under the leadership of Helen Dennis, president; Natalie Turpin, vice-president; Joan Coolbaugh, secretary; and Dorothy Chambers, treasurer; have made the student body aware of the existence of this organization.

The Women's Day Student Council strives to guide and influence the lives of the commuting students and to promote friendly relations between the dormitory and day students.

The Women's Dormitory Council is an organization which aids in bringing complete cooperation and understanding to the resident women students.

Each week the councilors meet with the women dormitory students and inform them concerning college policies, council regulations, and future social events.

Lobby sings, the placing of magazines and newspapers in the social rooms, Christmas parties in the halls, and movies on campus were the activities sponsored this year.

"Good fellowship" is the motto of the men who head the Men's Dormitory Council. With headquarters located in Wayne Hall, the men work with other campus government organizations to promote many functions, including the Bloodmobile, Charities Campaign, and other campus interests.

Its counterpart for day student men is the Men's Day Student Council, which serves to voice the opinion of the vast group who are not campus residents. The Day Room in Anderson Hall is the college location of this organization, and one of the council's chief responsibilities is the maintenance of cleanliness and order in this room. Here provisions have been made for ping-pong enthusiasts and informal conversational groups. With a radio, magazine racks, tables, and locker space, the room proves homelike and comfortable for the men day students.

QUAD

The student at West Chester is represented in the field of journalism through the publication of Quad Angles. This year the editors and the members of the staff have been very successful in printing the college paper every two weeks; formerly, it was a bi-monthly publication. Many changes have been made since the spring semester of 1953. The full four page publication of previous years has given way to a six page newspaper of better quality. This change has produced a finer campus news organ.

These past years have witnessed major changes in the context of the paper, but these have in no way detracted from the high standards and reputation that are a part of Quad. Fine editorials, feature articles, the very new and popular gossip column, sport stories, and a calendar of the week are but a few of the highlights of the paper. An added feature is a section devoted to former West Chester graduates, appropriately called "News Briefs."

Tuesday nights at the printers, last minute changes and revisions, endless proof reading—all these are every day occurrences for the staff of Quad Angles, an integral part of campus life. The editors and staff members, under the capable direction of Dr. Thomas E. Berry, endeavor to present to the student issues of the most important events that take place in the various curricula—Secondary, Elementary, Music, and Health and Physical Education.

Displaying its versatility, Quad acts as an advertising agency. Without the advertisements we should never know what movies are playing up town. Since the size has been reduced, it has been necessary to cut some of the advertising.

Who is responsible for seeing that the bills are paid? This responsibility rests with the Business Staff. Behind most organizations on campus there are a few loyal members who receive none of the glory, but who do a large share of the work. Quad Angles is no exception to this rule. A little publicized, yet extremely hard working group, is the Business Staff of the college newspaper. It is they who make the publication of the paper possible by getting advertisements, straightening out the mailing list, juggling expenses, and doing all those innumerable little jobs that publishing a newspaper entails. Although usually in the background, this part of the Quad Angles staff decides such problems as the number of publications the budget can carry each year. The Quad Angles Business Staff holds the reins on the ambitious Editorial Staff, but their mutual harmonious attitude for the production of a worthwhile news organ has led to a highly successful and popular publication.

Behind the headlines are found: co-editors-in-chief, Jane Perkins and Donald B. Wodock; copy editor, Jane Johnson; feature editor, Alma Urbano; co-sports editors, John Areker and Francis Groff; circulation manager, Kathryn Miller; co-business managers, Laurette Capuro and Ronald J. LITTLE

THEATER

This year, as in the past, the Little Theater of West Chester has been instrumental both in providing entertainment for the college students and in serving as the medium for the display of many of the students' fine talents. The members prepared "Bell, Book, and Candle" for the annual Parents' Weekend in the fall semester.

Working unceasingly to entertain the college and friends of the college with a varied selection of plays are two groups, the actual players and the stage committees. Miss Dorothy Ramsey lends a helping hand in the obtaining of properties and in the costuming of plays.

Under the always creative and artistic direction of Miss Fern Barrer, the troupe presented "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "The Wizard of Oz," and "Everyman."

Club members discuss a coming athletic event at a regular meeting.
Hail Valkyrie!

A familiar scene in the Quad this fall was that of a sophomore "Phys. Ed." student busily sweeping. This conscientious girl was carrying out only one of her numerous tasks for Valkyrie Regs. which have done much to promote both school and club spirit. The Valkyrie Club, comprised of sophomore, junior, and senior "Phys. Ed." students, is one of the most active organizations on campus, and its members are easily recognized by their white blazers.

The Health Eds congregate after a victory.

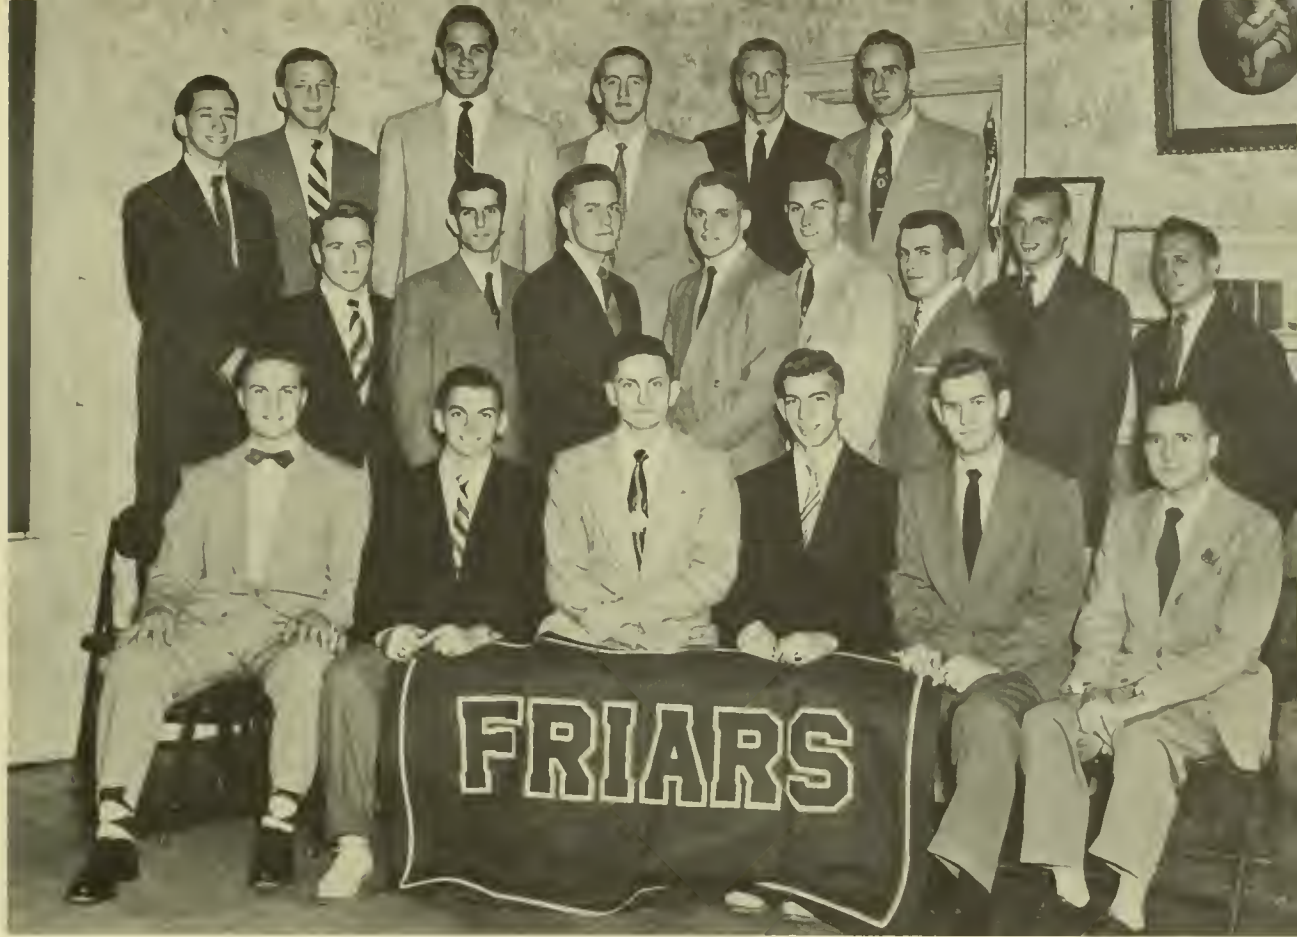

An outstanding activity this year was the publishing of "Newsletter," a bulletin containing Valkyrie alumnae news. It was edited by the present members and circulated among alumnae.

Sophomore Health Eds model the latest fashions.

Another new feature was the awarding of a plaque to the outstanding Valkyrie member. Last, but not least, we cannot forget the major part the Valkyries played in the success of the Circus.

VALKYRIE CLUB

FRIARS CLUB

This organization during the past year has sponsored three dances, awarded a scholarship to a promising and needy male member of the Junior Class, and presented a trophy to the championship intramural basketball team. In addition, it published its annual magazine, The Torch.

Membership in the Varsity Club is given to those men who have earned a varsity letter in a recognized sport. Each year the club undertakes such projects as the publication of the official football program, the Ram's Horn, and sponsors Varsity Club dances. This year the club was under the capable leadership of Alexander Neiman, president; David Dolbin, vice-president; Clyde Witman, secretary; and William Zimmerman, treasurer.

Music

The Criterions play for all the big dances at W.C.S.T.C. This year "Sonny" Eaton was the director of the band, which consisted of sixteen members including the vocalists, Virginia Elliot and Fred Reinhart. Miss Elliot is the first woman vocalist to appear with the band. The Criterions use the original arrangements of Raymond Hoaster and Ronald Dellecker, former West Chester students.

MARCHING BAND

Football memories would be incomplete without our Marching Band. Noted for its fast cadence and unusual arrangements, the band attends special occasions, sports events, and community affairs. It is directed by Mr. Carson and Dr. Antonowich with Kenneth Raessler acting as drum major. Special arrangements heard this season were by James Reed, Edwin Fell, and Fred Sales. The Marching Band has rightfully earned the reputation of the "Best Small College Band in the Country."

COLLEGE SYMPHONY

The Symphony Orchestra consists of some eighty selected instrumentalists from the college. This organization presents programs both for civic and college audiences. This year's Spring Concert program featured Dvorak's "Fourth Symphony," a work that is rarely performed. Mr. Zimmer and Mr. Middleton alternate as conductors of the group every second year. This year, the group performed under the leadership of Mr. Zimmer.

SINFONIETTA

The Sinfonietta, under the direction of Dr. Keenan, is comprised of thirty members selected from the Symphony Orchestra. It was organized by its conductor in 1940. The concert repertoire includes various compositions by American composers. This year's concert included "A Concert Piece for Bassoon" by Beirle Phillips, featuring R. Sherry; Haydn's "Symphony, Number 77," and "Don Quixote" by Telemann.

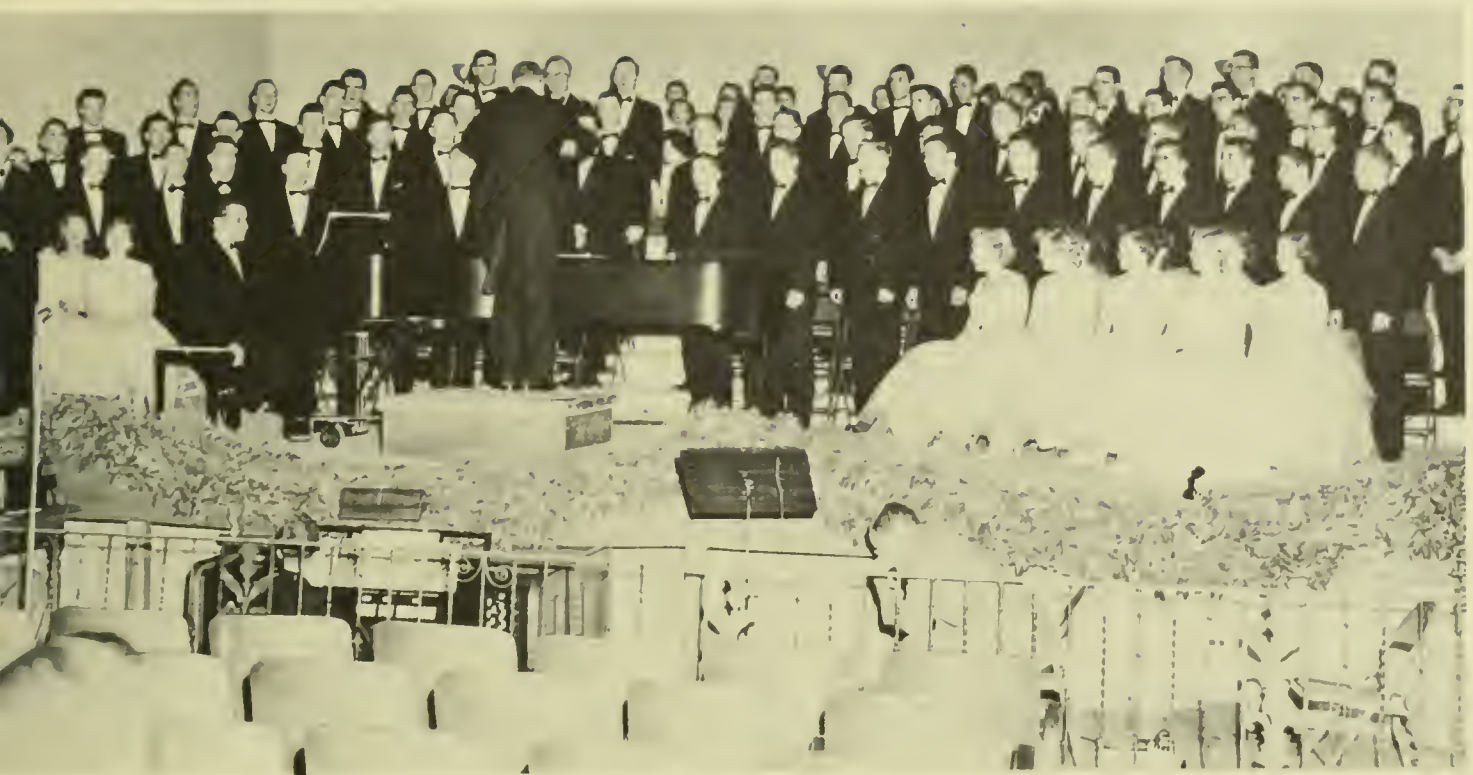

COLLEGE CHOIR

The College Choir is composed of one hundred voices selected from the Music Curriculum. Dr. Frank T. Cheesman directed the choir until the return of Mr. Arthur E. Jones in the second semester. Activities of the choir include giving concerts in the surrounding localities, singing at the annual Christmas Carol Service, and participating in other college programs.

JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior Chorus is an organization composed of all the women in the Music Curriculum who are not members of the College Choir. During the absence of Mr. Arthur E. Jones, the group was under the direction of Dr. Frank T. Cheesman. The chorus participated in the annual Christmas Carol Service and presented a concert in the spring semester.

The Men's Chorus, made up of seventy underclassmen, is under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Ginter. The chorus meets twice weekly, with William Feldman serving as accompanist.

This group, offering membership to men of all curricula, participates in two major activities each year: the annual Carol Service and the Spring Concert, at which time the Chorus shares the spotlight with the Women's Chorus to present a program of vocal music.

MUSIC CLUB

The Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Middleton, consists of eighty selected instrumentalists from the college. The annual concert, presented on March 21, included excerpts from Wagner's "The Nibelungen Ring" Third and Fourth Movements of Shostakovich's "Eleventh Symphony"; and Military Marches. The guiding principle of the concert band and its director is musical sincerity and integrity.

CONCERT BAND

The Woodwind Quintet, a musical ensemble under the capable direction of Mr. Paul Carson, is one which is too often unrecognized on campus. The group consists of five instruments—flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and French horn, which are combined to offer unusual and melodic presentations. The Quintette performs at recitals and other musical functions of both civic and cultural natures.

ALL COLLEGE PARTY

Faculty members participate in the Student-Faculty Volleyball Game.

The All College Party, an evening of fun and entertainment for students and faculty members alike, was held on Tuesday, March 2. Under the sponsorship of the Student Government Association, the soiree consisted of a variety of activities, scheduled at various intervals throughout the evening.

The agenda included a faculty-student volleyball game, sporting events in the Old Gym, social dancing in Recreation Hall, and refreshments in the college dining room. Climaxing the event was a gala show produced and presented entirely by members of the faculty for the enjoyment and entertainment of students and guests.

William Brodhag, President of Student Government Association, headed the committee which formulated plans for the festivities:

The White Supper attracts both students and faculty.

Christmas at West Chester brings with it the mingling of the old and the new—the warm familiarity of the traditional spiced with the freshness of the season. The annual White Supper, followed by the Carol Service, introduces to the campus the solemn, miraculous grandeur which is Christmas.

THE COLLEGE CIRCUS

Mr. Alvin Davis co-ordinates the form and rhythm of a dance routine.

Perfect casting: "Clowns" Angelo, Keenan, Crossman, Kautter, and Duff relax between scenes.

With the coming of the animals and the call of the ringmaster, Robert Norris, this year's Physical Education Circus came to the new Field House. "Stupendous! Colossal! Mammoth!" shouted the spectators, as the baseball tap, the crack freshman rhythm drill, and the international dance extravaganza unfolded before the eyes of the thrilled onlookers.

To capacity crowds this mass production made a two hour show one of abundant entertainment, while the jovial and jocund clowns hilariously frolicked to the delight of the fun-thrilled audience.

The Circus Band literally pranced and romped with the clowns as they laughed through performances on April 7, 9, and 10. Meanwhile, in the offstage area, the hard-working circus directors and producers, Mr. Alvin Davis, and Miss Anne Schaub, with Nancy Snyder, Hazel Hendren, Nancy Vulich, and Robert Trimble, hustled the cast of three hundred fifty students in and out of their costumes.

Through a combination of organization, originality, and an abundance of talent, the Circus was an outstanding event on the calendar of 1954.

ATHLETICS

Courage is a prime requisite in each phase of the sports program. Joan D'Arc typifies such bravery and staunchness of purpose. Her shield symbolizes the valor and forthrightness of the true sportsman.

The Field House represents the most useful addition made in recent years to the facilities of the college. Designed to enlarge the Ehinger Gymnasium, the structure houses a large basketball court with seating capacity for several thousand spectators, an indoor track area, a modern swimming pool, extensive area for locker rooms, and offices for instructors in the Health and Physical Education Department.

FOOTBALL

Coach Glenn Killinger's 1953 Golden Rams opened an ambitious nine game schedule with the Fort Belvoir Army Engineers. The Rams gave an excellent account of themselves against the ex-collegiate stars before bowing 21-6. Pennsylvania Military College moved into Wayne Field intent upon trampling the Purple and Gold. However, West Chester's bench strength was too much for the Cadets and the Rams triumphed 27-8. West Chester next entertained Drexel's Dragons in a not-too-hospitable style. Drexel crumbled before a 27 point fourth period onslaught and absorbed a 47-12 drubbing. The game of the year was played on the University of Delaware's field in Newark, Delaware. The Golden Rams, after trailing at halftime by a score of 13-7, came roaring back to overpower the highly-favored Blue Hens and handed them their only defeat of the season by a 27-13 score. Lock Haven was no match for the visiting Rams squad which rolled up a 54-7 count by the time the final whistle sounded. West Chester suffered a loss in prestige when an inspired East Stroudsburg team held them scoreless in the first half before the Rams rallied in the second half for a 16-7 victory. Back on Wayne Field again, the Ram gridders trounced helpless Kutztown 53-6 even though coach Killinger cleared the bench in an effort to keep the score down. After the Millersville game was canceled because of snow, the Rams traveled to Bloomsburg to play the Huskies with the Teachers College Championship hanging in the balance. The Rams closed out the season with a hard fought 20-7 triumph and captured their second consecutive championship.

SOCCKER

The Golden Ram booters of 1953 with six lettermen in the ranks embarked upon an eight-game soccer season. They first traveled to Newark, Delaware, where they trounced the Blue Hens of the University of Delaware by a score of 7-1. Six men got into the scoring column in the West Chester triumph. On Wayne Field the following week the Rams encountered an inspired Drexel team. Bob Hisler, Bill Charlton, and Howard Troxell scored for West Chester as the Rams won a hard-fought battle by a score of 3-0. Earle Waters' proteges next traveled to West Point for a game with the Cadet soccer team. The Rams battled valiantly but fell before the vengeful Army team, 2-1. Bob Heisler scored West Chester's only goal. Invading the Teachers College ranks for the only time of the season, the soccermen eked out a 3-2 victory over East Stroudsburg on two goals by Bob Heisler and one by Mike Roman. This loss broke a two year East Stroudsburg unbeaten streak. Back on Wayne Field again, the Rams took the measure of Baltimore University, Mason-Dixon Conference champion, by a score of 4-0 to avenge a defeat at their hands last season. Bob Heisler drove home three goals, and All-American Tony Puglisi added another. The game that will always be remembered was played with the University of Pennsylvania on Wayne Field in a driving snowstorm. Many loyal fans turned out to witness a bitterly contested game in which the Red and Blue was victorious by the score of 2-1. Sergis Rey headed in the Rams' lone goal, although the West Chester front line repeatedly penetrated the Penn defenses only to be stopped by the Penn goalie. LaSalle College was no match for the fired-up Rams as five men scored to shut the Explorers out 6-0. Mike Roman led the scorers with two goals. The Purple and Gold terminated the season with a flourish by stopping previously unbeaten Seton Hall by a 3-1 score. Troxell scored two goals, and Roman, one, as the Rams rallied from a 1-0 deficit.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

The Intramurals Program for Men is designed to give opportunity for participation in athletic activities to men of all curricula. Commencing in the fall semester with tennis matches, the program extends throughout the year and includes such sports as basketball, roller hockey, and softball.

Michael McWilliams, assisted by Charles Way, headed the committees which formulated plans for scheduling the various athletic events.

The 1953-1954 Ram gymnastics squad did not function as a varsity team this year since they did not engage in intercollegiate competition. However, the team did travel to several high schools in the vicinity—West Chester, Berwyn, Ridley Township, and Newcastle, Delaware, High Schools, where they staged gym exhibitions for the students.

Albert Donofrio was the only senior performing with the team this year. Coach Alvin Davis expects to enter a team in the intercollegiate competition next season with such men as Harry Williams, Thomas Orr, and Edward O'Keefe serving as regulars.

BASKETBALL

The Rams opened the season with a 65-51 loss to powerful LaSalle College. Hofstra College won out in a hard-fought contest in the Ehinger Gymnasium by a 75-66 score. The first victory of the season was scored against Rider College, 54-52. However, it was soon forgotten as Millersville and Baltimore both took the measure of West Chester by scores of 76-69 and 82-75 respectively. The Messikomer men finally got into the winning column with victories over Shippensburg by 85-78 and over Elizabethtown by 74-69. Drexel topped the Rams in the initial game in the new Field House by 66-58. West Chester then won eight consecutive games, five of them on the home floor, before bowing to Millersville for the second time by a score of 66-52. The Rams were not slowed by the defeat, and Kutztown 70-50, Denison 65-64, Baltimore 78-70, P.M.C. 67-58, and East Stroudsburg 83-56 lost before the local fans. Taking to the road for several of their games, the West Chester quintet joined forces to defeat Washington College by a score of 68-52, Bloomsburg by a score of 80-72, and Delaware by a score of 64-49.

With seniors Theodore Beck, Sheldon Saffren, and Richard Miller leaving the ranks of the squad, Coach Messikomer looks to the remaining members to carry on the team's traditions next season.

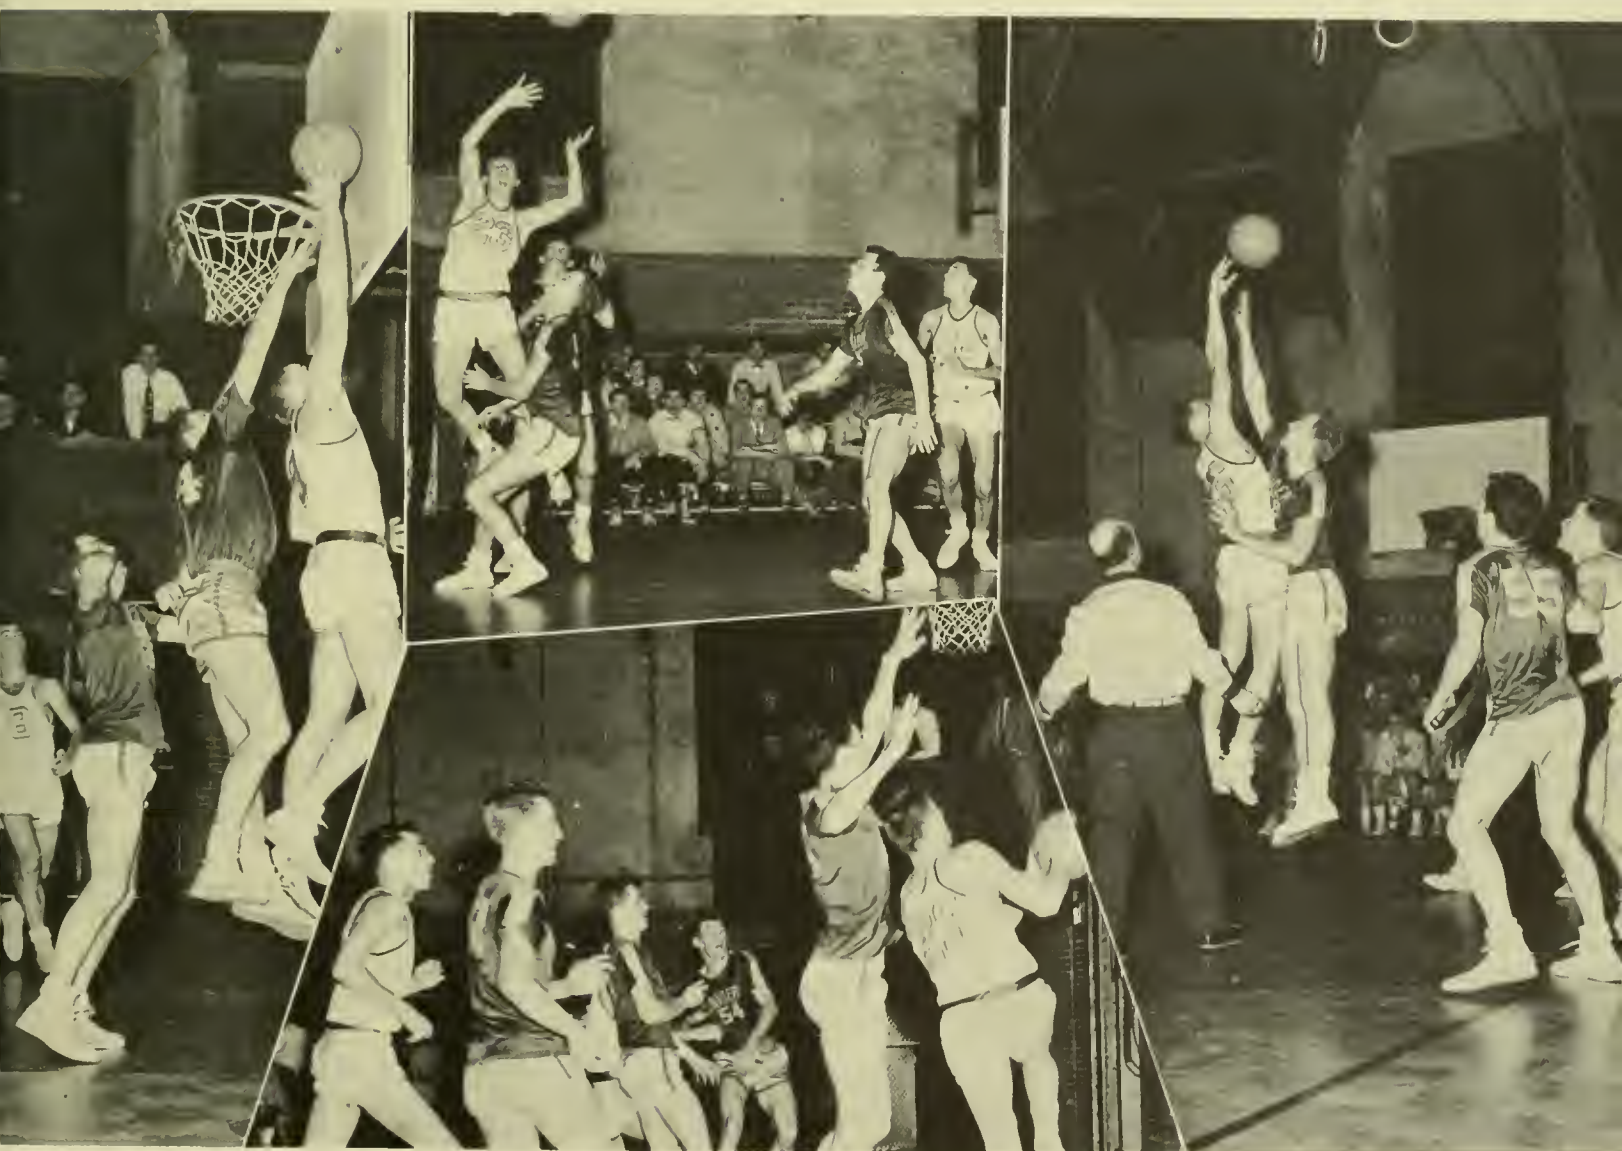

The Golden Ram cagers of 1953-1954 had one of their most successful seasons in recent years. Coach Emil Messikomer's proteges got into high gear after moving into the Field House at the beginning of the second semester. Co-captained by Theodore Beck and Sheldon Saffren, the Rams ran their winning streak to eight in a row at one time during the season before bowing to Millersville in the State Teachers College Conference title game.

James Rick, Richard Miller, and Karl Shaffer, along with Beck and Saffren, comprised the starting team. Supporting them were several dependable replacements including Edward Finn, John Edelman, Walter Riedemann, and John Havrilla. Louis Tancredi headed the group of managers who served the team this year.

Coach Arthur Hawthorne's hard working Golden Ram harriers made 1953 a banner season as far as cross country was concerned. The Rams, who had been a "character building" team for the past few years, compiled an excellent 6-2 record.

Mr. Hawthorne's proteges inaugurated the season by beating Lehigh University by the score of 25-34 (low score wins in cross country). Middle Atlantic Champion St. Joseph's College had too much for the Rams as they trounced West Chester by 43-16. LaSalle College had to go all out to shade the Rams by a 31-24 score. Freshman Jerry Bankert set a new Washington College course record, when the Ram harriers stopped Washington by the score of 25-30. Bankert again broke a course record as the Rams romped over the Cheyney Team by a 15-45 score. Inevitably, the home course record fell as Jerry Bankert led West Chester to an 18-43 victory over visiting Howard University. Temple University was the next to fall before the surging Rams by a score of 25-35. The West Chester runners closed their season with a resounding 20-43 humbling of Albright College.

Freshmen Jerry Bankert and Don Wilgis were a considerable aid to veterans George Loper, Dan DiSalvi, Bob Lewis, and Jim Myers in making possible this fine season.

Dr. Willard Trezise's Golden Ram wrestler's of 1954 had another excellent season. The Rams thoroughly trounced Lincoln and Pennsylvania Universities with scores of 30-5 and 28-0 respectively. The Ram grapplers followed the apparent trend of varsity teams as they lost in their first appearance in the newly-completed Field House. Opposing Lock Haven without the services of a heavyweight, the Rams lost by a close 14-11 score as 147 pound Pat Zagarino lost a 5-3 decision in the heavyweight event to a man thirty pounds heavier than he.

Recovering quickly from the defeat, West Chester soundly thumped Towson, Maryland, by the score of 25-2 and took the measure of Ithaca College by a 24-10 score. The usually potent Millersville squad was crushed under a deluge of Ram victories when the wrestlers chalked up a score of 28-6. East Stroudsburg S.T.C. was the next victim of the Rams, falling by a 32-0 score.

Outstanding among the varsity wrestlers were co-captains Clyde Witman and Tony Soscia, Bill Zimmerman, Pat Zagarino, Mike Forsythe, Ken Ober, Lou Corson, and Webb Reyner.

The mermen of West Chester embarked upon an ambitious schedule in 1954 while anxiously awaiting the opening of the new pool in the Field House. After losing a close battle to East Stroudsburg by a score of 45-39, the Ram swimmers outstroked Swarthmore 62-23, Villanova 55-29, and Pennsylvania Military College 59-25.

The first meet in the new pool pitted the Rams against the Leopards of Lafayette. The Leopards came out on top by a 50-31 score. Coach Edward Twardowski's men then bowed to Pennsylvania by a score of 55-29 and to Delaware by a 61-23 score, rounding out a very full two weeks of competition.

The most dependable men on the squad were Edward Conrad and Robert Mugsley who received much support from such men as Captain John Furlow, Robert Fitzgerald, Terry Weyant, Millard Freeman, and Edward Schiller. George Loper was the senior manager of the team.

GOLF

With Mr. Earle Waters on a sabbatical leave, the 1953 Ram golfers were coached by Mr. Edward Cardner. The golfers played an eight game schedule, winning four and losing four. The linksmen were led by co-captains Robert Sicoli and Henry McQuiston. In addition to these men, Edward Kearns, Edward Stoechle, Carl Schwartz, Benjamin Eckroth, and Ronald Blatt were a considerable help to the team. Co-captain McQuiston was chosen by his fellow golfers to serve as captain of the 1954 team.

The Varsity Tennis Team is one which is finally beginning to attain much deserved recognition. Under the able coaching of Mr. Twardowski, the net men completed a full schedule last year and finished with the imposing tally of six victories and only two defeats. This is, indeed, a record when the caliber of the opposition is considered.

The West Chester squad opposed such formidable teams as St. Joseph's College, the University of Delaware, LaSalle College, and others of no less importance.

Heading the team in 1953 were Alan Quay and Clarence Grumbine who, with the cooperation of their teammates, served to bring success to the College.

An important event for the team was the Inter-Collegiate Tennis Tournament, which was held in the Fall of 1954 at Bucknell University. West Chester, one of the thirteen colleges represented, sent the Crespy boys, Vic and Mort, who played to give the teachers fourth place in the final tabulation.

TRACK

Under the tutelage of Mr. John Clokey the well-balanced 1953 Golden Ram Track and Field Team rolled up an impressive 8-2 log and won the State Teachers College Championship along the way. Opening the season with a hustling Lincoln outfit, the Rams exhibited overall power as they stopped the men from Oxford, Pennsylvania, 79 3/10—51 7/10. Cheyney, a strong sprinting team, was the next victim as West Chester superiority in field events gave them an 87-14 victory. East Stroudsburg was completely outclassed by the Rams, 99-27. In a triangular meet with Shippensburg and Cheyney, West Chester gave a preview of the coming State Teachers College Championships by shading Cheyney and Shippensburg with the final scores reading 82 1/3—43 1/3—37 1/3, respectively. Traveling to Philadelphia for the Penn Relays, the West Chester Mile Relay Team, composed of Al Angelo, Jim Gelwicks, John McAneney, and Bob Lewis, came in second in their heat. A 63-63 tie meet with Montclair, New Jersey, State Teachers College, was sandwiched between losses to powerful St. Joseph's 47 1/2—78 1/2 and LaSalle Colleges 35 1/2—90 1/2. The State Teachers College Championship found the Rams once again on top with 72 points. Shippensburg with 53 1/2 points was second, and Cheyney with 39 1/2 points was third. The Rams closed the season by trouncing Bloomsburg, 92-34.

BASEBALL

The 1953 edition of baseball at West Chester proved to be one of its best in recent years. When the final analysis was evaluated, the West Chester Stickmen had a 13 win—2 lose record.

Glen Killinger's swatters defeated some of the outstanding teams in the Philadelphia area. Their most noteworthy victory was an 8-6 win over a highly publicized Villanova nine. At one time during the season the Rams had nine straight victories, only to be stopped by a powerful Bloomsburg State Teachers College team.

Once on the field, the Rams were led by their co-captains, Bill Munch and Fred Prender. Prender led the team in runs batted in, and Munch's spectacular plays gave West Chester one of the best defensive infields in the East.

Throughout the 1953 season, Bob Quinn and Fred Hoffman aided the team tremendously with their hitting and pitching. When Quinn or Hoffman were not pitching, they played the outfield. Both men turned in one-hit performances on the mound.

In the hitting department every man on the West Chester team batted over .300. Bob Quinn won the team batting championship with an amazing .421 average. Hoffman finished second in the batting honors, followed by Murphy and Hendrickson. With the exception of one game, Cliff Hendrickson was the backstop for West Chester. Cliff batted well over the .350 mark and contributed greatly to the team's success with great defensive plays.

The Rams have high hopes for the 1954 season. Through graduation the swatter's lost Captain Bill Munch and Charles Weber, who was runner-up for National Champion in Wrestling. With a replacement for Munch in the West Chester infield, Coach Killinger will again have an error-tight infield. With two pitchers like Fred Hoffman and Bob Quinn returning, and a team which batted over .300 during the past season, the year of 1954 promises to be a rewarding one on the baseball diamond at West Chester.

W.R.A. Offers a Varied Program for Women

Throughout the college year, the Women's Recreation Association features a varied athletic program. This extra-curricular organization gives all women students the opportunity to participate in their favorite sport or recreational activity. There are fifteen different activities, including golf, which was added this year. The program provides fair competition and aims to develop skills, leadership, and good sportsmanship.

Business is conducted by a Board of Managers, including the officers and faculty advisers, and an Executive Board whose members are elected from the Managers' Board with a representative from the Day Council. Meetings are held in the new W.R.A. office in the Old Gymnasium. A new bulletin board has been erected outside the office.

The Women's Recreation Association sponsors a square dance each play. Play days are also a main attraction. The inter-collegiate part of the program offers the opportunity to compete and to socialize with girls from other colleges.

The Women's Recreation Association has made great strides this year under the very capable leadership of Barbara Huebner. Miss Wade and Miss Margerum served as the faculty advisers. The rapid growth of this organization seems to indicate its popularity on the college campus.

With a strong forward line and smooth defense play, the Hockey Team opened its season against Temple. Although the West Chester girls held the advantage most of the time, the opponents tallied four times to West Chester's three. The second game was played on Wilmington field, the visiting Beaver Team scoring again once more than the home team, the game ending in a 3-2 loss for West Chester. The third and final game with Ursinus ended, the visiting team winning.

At the All-College competition at Ursinus College, West Chester made an excellent record, placing fullback Jean Smedley on the All-College First Team, fullback Betsy Wolle and goalkeeper Margie Walters on the second team, and halfback Barbara Clyde and inner Betty Cowperthwait on the third team.

Under the excellent coaching of Miss Dorothy Yanisch and Miss Jean Landis, this year has produced one of the college's most skilled and cooperative teams. Consisting mostly of freshmen and sophomores, the members will be returning to provide more thrills and excitement next year.

INTRAMURAL HOCKEY

With the weatherman providing sunshine almost every day, the Intramural Hockey Tournament started in full swing soon after school opened. This year's schedule was at its fullest capacity with seven academic and eight health education teams.

Under the direction of W.R.A. manager, Margaret Clark, the Round Robin Tournament was interrupted by the unseasonal blizzard which occurred in November, and the final play-offs never materialized. Games were sandwiched together from three to five-thirty o'clock. The few bruised shins could never compare to the keen competition, fun, and team spirit found in afternoons spent in enjoying this invigorating sport.

SENIOR HOCKEY GAME

Hockey sticks flailed the air, and heavy feet pounded the sod one November afternoon as the Senior members of the Health and Physical Education Department met in a fast-moving hockey game. It was a contest which pitted the physical strength of an all-male team against the wiles of an entirely female aggregation. After several periods of vigorous activity, the women conceded defeat as the men shot their way to an imposing 11-1 victory.

Under the capable leadership of student manager, Barbara Eckenroth, and faculty adviser, Miss Katherine Margerum, the girls' basketball team got under way early in January. After two weeks of intensive practice, Miss Margerum managed to cut the team down to thirty-nine players.

The extramural team met with Ursinus and Immaculata on its home court and then journeyed to Swarthmore to test its skills with those of the Swarthmore lassies. All three games were fast-moving and proved to be a real test for both teams.

Seniors participating in this program were Martyne Schoenly, Anita Page, and Ruth Paul.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

The intramural basketball program provided an opportunity for more than two hundred girls to participate. Miss Ruth Reed, faculty adviser, and Nancy Coulter, student manager, divided their twenty-five teams into five leagues—two composed of students from the Elementary, Secondary and Music curricula, and three of students from the Health and Physical Education curriculum. Each league played a Round Robin Tournament, and the winner from each league played for the championship. The winner of the Academic League was the team aptly titled the "No Names," while the winner of the Health Education League was the group known as "Lucy's Ladies."

Sophomore Health Education students acted as coaches for the teams, while the junior and senior girls did the officiating, and the freshmen served as timekeepers and scorekeepers.

VOLLEYBALL

Under the capable leadership of Miss Myra Wade, faculty adviser, and Margie Beebe, manager, the Archery Club got off to an early start. Approximately twenty-seven girls participated in this very popular W.R.A. activity. In fair weather they practiced on the archery range behind President's Swope home, while in poor weather the Old Gym provided a shelter for their practice. This year the Archery Club planned three meets with surrounding colleges and held one tournament at West Chester.

The W.R.A. Tennis Club, coached by Miss Muriel Leach, enjoyed an undefeated season during the spring of 1953. Meeting Temple at home and winning every set, the team then traveled to Ursinus where it again proved victorious.

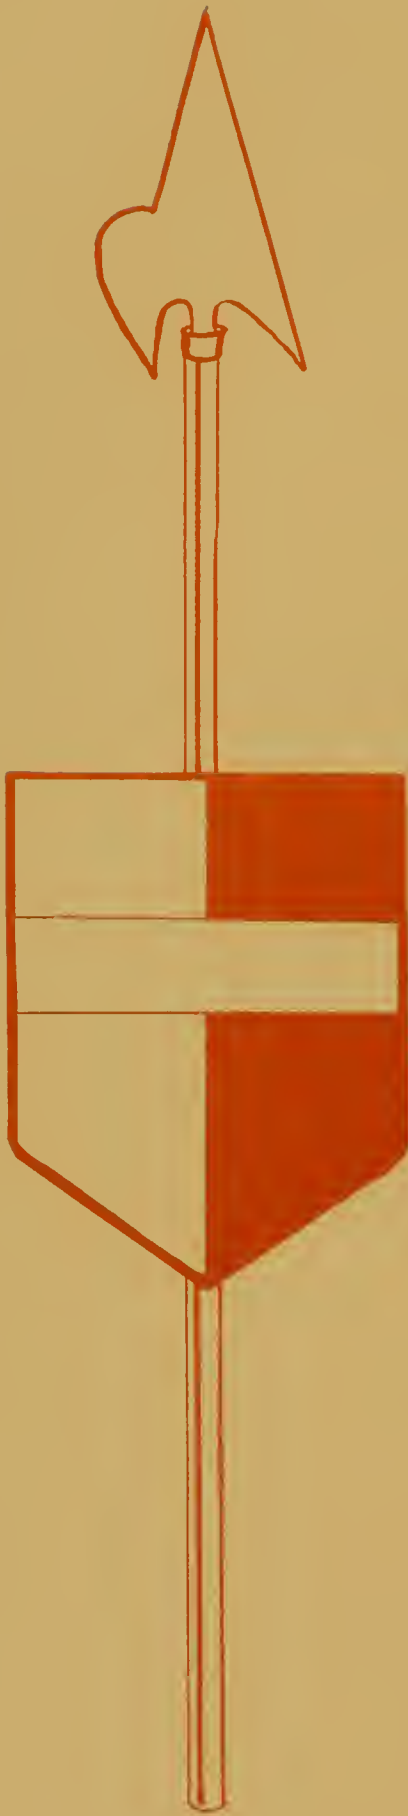

With approximately forty-five girls participating in the 1954 ladder tournament, competition was keen. Some of the girls who saw extramural action were Ann Feeney, Janet Ughes, and Jean Smedley.

Manager Herma Freitag spent many hours giving instruction to those girls who wished to become more adept on the courts. In addition, a mixed doubles tournament was held which attracted both men and women tennis enthusiasts.

STUDENT BODY

In his masterpiece, The Divine Comedy, Dante has presented the drama of man's search for perfection. Just as this great poem is an adventure in search of freedom, so our four years at West Chester have been an adventure in search of truth, beauty, and harmony.

*"If thou," he answered, "follow
but thy star,
Thou canst not miss at last a glorious haven."*

Sophomores of various curricula contribute to the social life of the campus.

Returning to West Chester in the fall, the Sophomore Class was eager to start on its second eventful year of college life.

With a hearty cry of "Hail! Valkyrie," the Health and Physical Education women were the first to make the campus aware of this energetic class.

In the field of sports, Robert Mosteller, Edward Conrad, James Fisher, Donald Gatski, and William Crozier were acclaimed by their fellow classmates, as Marguerite Crowley, Mary Lou Bigony, and Joan Miller cheered them on to victory from the side lines.

The entire Sophomore Class combined talents and efforts on October 26, under the able guidance of Miss Ethel Keller and Mr. Arthur Hawthorne, to present the beautiful "Twilight Terrace Dance" in Ehinger Gymnasium. Elizabeth Callery and many fellow classmates assisted in making the affair one of the gala events of the year.

On April 24, 1954, the student body again praised this industrious class when another successful dance highlighted its array of varied activities.

The Sophomore Class may indeed be proud of its officers: Karl Gudenberg, president; Muriel Winn, vice-president; Betsy Wallis, secretary; and Richard Wuest, treasurer.

Through cooperation and hard work, the Class of '56 has made contributions—both academic and social—to campus life.

As the curtain falls on the final act of our college life, let us look back on the last few scenes of our production. Under the direction of Daniel Di Salvi, our cast has worked hard for the performance which has brought a round of applause from students, faculty, and friends. The last few scenes in which our members participated were the annual Hallowe'en Party, the Senior Dinner, and Senior Week-end. In addition, we presented the Christmas tree in the Quad which has always been a highlight in our show. Yes, it can certainly be said that the cast of '54 brought down the curtain on a most successful production.

ALL-COLLEGE
HALLOWE'EN PARTY

One of the chief duties delegated to the Senior Class is that of sponsoring the All-College Hallowe'en Party, an annual event occurring in the closing days of October.

This year, a steady downpour forced party goers to abandon the Quad, usual scene of operations, and continue their merriment in Rec. Hall. Activities consisted of square dancing, entertainment, and refreshments, with a costume parade climaxing festivities.

Underclassmen contributed to the success of the venture by providing special booths which proved unique and entertaining.

Joyce Swendsen and Jack Holmes entertain seniors with current song hits.

An innovation this year on the somewhat traditional agenda of the Senior Class was the dinner honoring January graduates. This function, replacing the customary formal dance, was held in the college dining room on the evening of January 6, 1954. All seniors, both dormitory and day students, were invited to attend.

Under the capable direction of the class officers and various class committees, the dinner was highlighted by an informal address given by the President of the College, Dr. Charles S. Swope. Members of the January graduating class also presented entertainment befitting the occasion.

The "Waynesmen," popular campus quartette, present their unique renditions to dinner guests.

THE MIDWINTER FORMAL

The chief social event of the Second Semester at West Chester is the annual Mid-Winter Formal. Under the direction of the Advisory Board, the dance was held this year on Saturday, March 13, in Recreation Hall. Varying shades of blue and silver were used to create an atmosphere of charm and beauty in accordance with the Gershwin-inspired theme, "Rhapsody in Blue."

Helen Dennis, assisted by Gloria Fava, directed the committees of Day and Dormitory Councils, who combined efforts to contribute to the success of the dance.

SENIOR WEEKEND

The gala social event in the life of any graduating student at West Chester is Senior Weekend. Held this year on the evenings of April 30 and May 1, the weekend climaxed months of planning by committees composed of class members appointed by Chairman Donald Wright.

Friday night, April 30, was the Senior Ball. This dance was held in the splendor of the Gold Ballroom of the Hotel DuPont, Wilmington, Delaware. On Saturday evening, May 1. Seniors again convened—this time at an informal dinner dance held at the Hotel Broadwood in downtown Philadelphia. Guests enjoyed a delicious dinner followed by an evening of dancing.

Although Senior Weekend passed quickly, its memories will long remain with members of the Class of 1954.
